2019 CABERNET SAUVIGNON

RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY | SONOMA COUNTY

In the same way great food complements truly great wine, restaurateur, Steve Difillippo and Merriam Vineyard's, Peter Merriam, complement each other. A labor of love for both, they proudly introduce their new wine—a full bodied Cabernet Sauvignon, worthy of the Davio's name. Enjoy!

VINEYARD

Produced and bottled by Merriam Vineyards, this Russian River Valley Cabernet Sauvignon is made up of a base of Merriam's estate grown fruit, combined with grapes sourced from nearby vineyards. The Russian River Valley is located in Northern Sonoma County and is comprised of 15,000 vineyard acres with around 70 wineries. Cool evenings, and warm sunny days, result in wines that are well structured, balanced and contain the ideal acidity to pair exceptionally well with food.

TASTING NOTES

A full bodied deep ruby Cabernet Sauvignon showcasing multiple elements of terroir from nose to palate. On the nose a noticeably fruit forward aesthetic with hints of boysenberry and cassis, and underlining notes of fresh cut herbs, coffee grinds, and cracked black pepper. On the palate, complimentary notes of dried herbs and anis swirl together with an underlining presence of tart berries and a peppercorn with a structured dry finish.
